Programme for the Unveiling of the National Monument of Germany—The Black Flags Submit to France—McDermott Afraid to Leave Prison—Foreign News Notes, Etc.

NEIDERWALD, September 27.—The inauguration of the National Monument of Germany takes place to-morrow with imposing ceremonies. The following is the programme:

The Emperor, accompanied by the German Sovereigns, Princes and Generals in the last war will march on the monument commanding a full view of the monument.

The Imperial cortege, preceded by trumpets sounding the fanfare, will pass through the lines of the troops, veterans of the last war, Turners and Choral Unions from all parts of Germany.

When the Imperial party is seated a salute will be fired. A salute will then read a poem to the Emperor. Four military bands played at the foot of the monument will march, "Nun Danket Ihs Gott," the whole assemblage joining in their voices. The Prussian National Anthem will then be sung by the multitude.

On Sailling, the sculptor will unveil the statue. Batteries on Bingen hill will fire a salute and the "Wacht am Rhein" will be sung by all the people. The Emperor and empress will then inspect the monument, after which they will proceed to Rudesheim, on the bank of the Rhine, opposite Bingen, where a reception will be given.

A Dodge of Bismarck's.

PARIS, September 27.—The newspapers generally deprecate the exhibition on the part of the people, of anything resembling open resentment on the occasion of King Alfonso's arrival, owing to his acceptance of the colonelcy of the Uhlan regiment. The Temps expresses the opinion that Bismarck intended by the appointment of Alfonso to the colonelcy to prepare a cold reception for the King in France, and urges the Parisians by their conduct to

The Black Flags Subdue.

PARIS, September 27.—Advices from French sources, dated Hanoi, September 6th, state that the Black Flags have abandoned Sontay and the villages of Punking, Luang and Day, and retired to the left bank of the Red river. Several Mandarins have given in their submission to French authority through Harmand, the French civil commissioner. The French forces will undertake no offensive measures until after the arrival of reinforcements from

A Brilliant Wedding.

LONDON, September 27.—The city was in pleasant state of excitement this morning, the occasion being the marriage of the daughter of Lord May to Mr. Aitkin. The great bell of St. Paul's was rung for the first time in connection with marriage services at St. Paul's, after which the wedding breakfast was served at the Mansion House. Three hundred guests were present. The present wedding is third in

Breadalagh's Seat.— LONDON, September 27.—Breadalagh has addressed a letter to Sir Stafford Northcote, in which he declares he will again demand his seat in the House of Commons on the assembly of Parliament, and charges Northcote with causing all the mischief that has grown out of the continued violation of his (Breadalagh's) rights.

Afraid to Quit Prison.— LIVERPOOL, September 27.—It is stated that James McDermott, who was recently ordered to be discharged from custody, re-suses to quit prison unless police protection afforded him, as he fears he will be murdered unless the authorities make provision for his safety.

The report that operations in Madagascar are about to be renewed by the French forces there is discredited in French Government circles.

The Porte is preparing a circular to the powers, declaring that if Bulgaria lapses from its treaty with Turkey, Turkey will exercise her right of sovereignty in that country for restoration.

New York Newspaper War.

New York, September 27.—The news dealer, a factor hitherto unsolicited in war of rates among the local newspapers, and beginning to move against the publishers in their profits. As quoted, the editor of various papers has dropped their commitments, which before the epidemic in this, ranged from one-half cent to one one-half a cent of newspapers. It now changes from 10 to 12 cents. The most unsatisfactory feature of all is that outside of the city the news boys will, as dealers, insist on selling all papers at about the same price as before, and that neither the newspaper proprietors nor their patrons are to be the slightest bit the wiser. The drop in prices. Last night the East side news dealers held an indignation meeting, and sixty of them signed pledges to sell at eighteen to twenty cents per week. The papers that have made the reduction are:

The Daily War.
